

'MOVIE OPERAS' NEW DIVERSION FOR NEW YORK

Orchestra Will Interpret Scores While Films Reproduce Singers and Gorgeous Scenery.

BY CHARLES HENRY MELTZER.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Paris, September 6.—Movie-opera, the latest and most popular of the popular art of New York next season, at first an orchestra, with a large pipe organ, will interpret the operatic scores, but the moving pictures will reproduce the singers, the elaborate costumes and scenery, every movement, dramatic or exhilarating, and or joyous, in twenty favorite operas.

H. H. Hanson, the New York impressionist, assisted by Albert Mil-denberg, the American composer, will give to New York its "movie-opera." Mr. Milenberg has been here for months perfecting the novel and interesting plan. He says the Academy of Music and two other New York playhouses will be reserved for the cinematograph opera next season.

Some of the operas to be so given are "Carmen," "Samson et Delila," "Aida," "Rigoletto," "Il Trovatore," "Manon," "La Gioconda," "Medea," "Tannhauser," "Lohengrin," "Pag-liacci" and "Cavalleria Rusticana." Wolf Ferrari once said he thought it was possible that the future of the opera would be found in the carous and the destinies of our time by accomplished mimics, who will act their parts to the accompaniment of a noble orchestra. Then, at last, opera may be really "popular."

Cavaliere Will Not Wed.
In operatic circles it is again rumored that for reasons said to be connected with a certain singer, Maestro Toscanini may prefer not to return to the Metropolitan Opera House this autumn. Such stories have been promptly contradicted. William Guard, the Metropolitan's press representative, assures me the latest tale is false.

Another tale can be denied with authority. There is no truth, despite gossip, in the report that Mme. Lina Cavalieri will soon marry the French tenor, Murauro. When I saw Mme. Cavalieri at her country house near Pontoise a few days ago, she laughed at the bare thought of again plunging into matrimonial waters.

"I am hard at work now," said the charming singer, "rehearsing several parts which I shall sing in Boston and Chicago. They include Conchita and Francesca di Rimini, the heroines of Handel's two operas, besides Charlotte in 'Werther'." In all those works Mme. Cavalieri will have the co-operation of Murauro. When she tires of studying the new and trying roles with Toumanoff, her accompanist, La Belle Lina plays at farming, trims roses in her lovely park and gardens. For some years she has preferred the peace she finds at her own country home to the frenzied joys of Deauville and the spas.

Opera in Central Park.
During his recent stay in Paris Comptroller Frederick took an hour off to investigate "al fresco" opera. I told him of the popular performances which take place in the garden of the Tuileries and asked him about the possibility of giving entertainments of the same sort every summer under municipal auspices in Central Park.
Like Park Commissioner Stover, of New York, Comptroller Frederick was favorably impressed by the idea, at least in theory. He may forget it, though, before he sees New York.

LONDON'S GIRL BARBERS ARE BECOMING POPULAR

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] London, September 6.—Girl barbers are growing in popularity in London, and there is an increasing demand for them. Many Americans are fond of their services, and the profession is young women, neatly attired in white, who deftly wield the scissors and razor.

There are a considerable number of these establishments here now. It is one of the things that the girls do. Many of the girls are experts at manicuring and ladies' hairdressing as well. Some of them earn large incomes.

NO EPIDEMIC IN BRISTOL.

Health Authorities Declare Fever Reports Greatly Exaggerated.
Bristol, Va., September 6.—In view of concern felt in several Southern States among patrons of the colleges of Bristol, the local health authorities have issued a statement showing that there has been no epidemic of fever in Bristol, and stating that reports touching the situation have been greatly exaggerated. There have been some cases of fever in Bristol, Tenn., but no epidemic, and only a few more than are common in dry, hot seasons. Bristol, Va., has not had in excess of a dozen cases all summer.

In order to safeguard against future danger, the city authorities have taken the precaution to put in a sterilization plant, so that the town is now well protected against fever germs.

ABRUZZI HOTLY ASSAILED FOR TANGO ACTIVITY

Accused of Introducing Dance Into Italy—He Wins Prize in Private Competition.

BY CAMILLO CIANFARRA.
[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
Rome, September 6.—The religious press of Venice, Milan and Naples is just now rapping the Duke of the Abruzzi for what is considered his open official encouragement of the introduction into Italy of the tango dance, which is about to be banished from the dancing program of Italian society on the ground that it is extremely detrimental to the morals of the young of both sexes.

The duke's encouragement happened this way: On Thursday last, at the Rido Hotel, Venice, he decided to give a quiet dinner to a number of old friends who were in Venice for the season. Among those present were Princess Letizia, the duke's stepmother; Count and Countess Szechenyi, formerly Gladys Vanderbilt; Lord Carnarvon, Prince and Princess Lech-enstein, Louis Rothschild, Princess Gargaline, Princess Odescalchi, Princess di San Faustino, formerly Mrs. Machel Campbell, of New York; Mrs. Gardner, Marchioness Dora di Rulini and the Duchess of Garzoli.

Was Meant to Be Secret.
At the conclusion of the dinner, the Count Szechenyi proposed to establish a tango academy, and the duke not only approved the idea, but offered handsome prizes for the best four dancers. The affair was meant to be strictly secret, but next day the duke and his guests were surprised to read a long account of the dinner and the "academy" in one of the leading newspapers of Venice.

According to these accounts, the duke won first prize himself; he had as partner, Miss Genia Ladine. The second prize went to Princess Gargaline, a Russian beauty of the legendary type, who danced with Signor Sgarbi. The third went to Count Szechenyi, whose partner was the Princess di San Faustino.

Other dances followed. In a waltz competition the Duke of the Abruzzi, Lady Diana, Count Bocca and Mrs.
Gardner received first prize.

Judging by the opposition to the tango meeting, the dance is not likely to be a feature of social entertainments during the coming season.

Singers at Rimini.
Rimini, the fashionable bathing resort of the Adriatic, was this week visited by an unusual number of metropolitan artists, including Geraldine Farrah, who motored there with her mother from Vallambrosa. Caruso also was there in a new car, accompanied by his eldest son. There were several others.

Howard Shelly, of the Chicago Opera House, passed through on his way back from Parma, where he was a guest of the director of the company, with whom he mapped out the work for the coming season.

After spending three weeks at Aixles-Bains and a week at Genoa, Ambassador O'Brien, who is at Naples, will return to Rome next week. He has begun to dispose of the furniture of his apartment, and expects to present his letter of recall to King Victor before the end of next month.

her study of these subjects has made her a recognized authority.

Mrs. Clark intends while here to visit the Catawba Valley, where her great-grandfather, James MacAfee, Afe, the first white settler in Roanoke County, lived and died; to stand upon MacAfee's knee, the highest eminence in Roanoke County, bearing the name of his discoverer, and if possible to locate the last resting place of this hardy pioneer. The fund of information which she possesses concerning the MacAfee family, of which there are descendants in Roanoke County, is remarkable. Mrs. Clark, who, before her marriage to the speaker, was a Miss Bennett, of Kentucky, is descended from the MacAfee family, who emigrated to Kentucky about the same time as MacAfee, the families afterwards intermarried. Mrs. Clark is related by marriage to Dr. A. W. Pitzer and Mrs.
C. C. Tompkins, of Salem.

Wednesday afternoon Stephen Vaudry, accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Josie, left on the Memphis Special for Elkton, Md., where they will probably make their home in the future. They have resided in Bedford for about nine years, their home being a few miles west of town, and during this time have made many warm friends who regret very much to see them leave. Mr. Vaudry is a native of France, but has lived in this country since he was a young man, coming here shortly after the close of the Civil war in the fifties, and before leaving Bedford had lived in New York and Missouri.

Before leaving his native land he had served nearly seven years in the French army, and saw service in the war above referred to, when France, England, Turkey and Sardinia made common cause against Russia. He

Mr. Vaudry saved the lives of three English officers, and when, at the close of hostilities, recognition was made by Queen Victoria of those Frenchmen who had distinguished themselves in aiding the men of England, Mr. Van-honor by this illustrious Queen, and also a medal which was given to sol-certificate of honor he still has and cherishes it as one of his most valued

VACCINATION IS REQUIRED.

Health and School Authorities in Roanoke Co-Operate in Matter.

Roanoke, Va., September 6.—To the misfortune of ended holidays, prospective students in the public schools are facing another trial in the matter of clear vaccination record. As in former years, students will be required to show immunity or submit to vaccination with smallpox virus. All children applying for registration at opening day of school will be furnished with blank forms furnished by the health department to be signed by parents and returned.

One coupon of this blank sets forth that the child has been vaccinated by the family physician, and another assuring the school authorities that the child is ready to submit to public vaccination by the health officer or his representatives.

As soon as the school authorities determine the number who will take advantage of public vaccination, a physician will be sent to each school to perform the immunizing work. Vaccination will not be performed at the office of the health department, as in former years. No child will be permitted to continue at school unless it has been properly examined and vaccinated. The health officer and the school authorities are co-operating with a view to cleaning up the vaccination work with the least possible delay and friction. Of course, children able to show satisfactory scars will be immune without further inoculation, as usual.

WHITE GROUNDHOG KILLED.

Specimen Weighing Eighteen Pounds Property of Lexington Man.
Lexington, Va., September 6.—Another white groundhog was killed a few days ago near Lexington. W. M.
Monroe was the lucky huntsman this time. The weather regulator was killed near Warm Run, a small branch below the powerhouse emptying into North River. One shot was fired at his whisker, which entered his side, and killed the animal. Monroe has the hide stuffed, and it presents quite a lifelike appearance. The animal weighed eight-teen pounds when killed. The hair is pure white.

MISSIONARIES TO CHINA.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred. J. Wampler Soon Will Sail for Seattle.
Harrisonburg, Va., September 6.—Dr. and Mrs. Fred. J. Wampler, who will soon sail from Seattle, Wash., as medical missionaries to China, left Harrisonburg yesterday morning for Washington. After a visit to the former's sister, Mrs. W. H. Sanger, at Oak-ton, they will leave Washington for Seattle, going by way of Philadelphia, Niagara Falls and Chicago.

Dr. Wampler is a son of the late Elder Frederick and Anna Wampler, and was raised near Edom. He graduated from Bridgewater College in 1908, and has since received the M. A. degree from the same school. He graduated from the University of Chicago and from Rush Medical College, with the degree of M. D., this spring. He has had considerable training.
Dr. and Mrs. Wampler, who was Miss Skeggs, of Roanoke, spent July and August visiting friends and relatives in the Valley. They go to China under the auspices of the General Mission Board of the Church of the Brethren, and will be located in the Province of Shansi, in North China.

CATTLE FROM SOUTH.

Fourteen Cars Pass Lynchburg for Chicago Stock Yards.
Lynchburg, Va., September 6.—Plainly showing that the teaching of the scientific agriculturists throughout the South urging that the farmers raise more livestock and less cotton and tobacco is producing results, fourteen carloads of splendid specimens of cattle passed through the city yesterday en route to the stock yards of Chicago, being shipped from the Southern States.
This is the first large shipment of cattle that has passed through Lynchburg in a long time. The stock of yesterday was brought here on the Southern Railway and transferred to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway.

Wilmington, N. C., September 6.— Late last night officers of the county swooped down on a large tent erected in the village of Delgado, near this city, and arrested five evangelists of the "Unknown Tongue" faith. They had been conducting big meetings for weeks and drawing large crowds, but at last the villagers lodged complaint and they were arrested and jailed. The quietest consisted of five white men, each a professed preacher in the faith, and the gloried in being arrested.
To-day they were given a preliminary hearing on a charge of common nuisance and sent to the higher court.
They employed able counsel to fight their case.

'UNKNOWN TONGUE' PREACHERS HELD

FEW MOMENTS! NO INDIGESTION OR SICK STOMACH—PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Digests All Food, Absorbs Gases and Stops Fermentation
At Once.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset; and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; if your head is dizzy and aches; if belch gases and acids and cruetate undigested food; if breath foul, tongue coated—just take Pape's Diapepsin, and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin regularly keeps the stomach occupied and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is astonishing. Please don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary—Advertisement.

Remarkable Long Standing Case of Kidney Trouble and Catarrh Cured

Here is a report Mr. J. E. Taylor, who resides at 146 Bank Street, Norfolk, Va., occupation a painter and decorator, who has been a sufferer with kidney trouble for the past eight years; would have to get up at night six or eight times to void urine, which caused a smarting, burning sensation, back lame, sore and stiff, especially in the morning; at times so bad he could not work; had been losing flesh, growing weaker; at times felt despondent, for during all these long years he has spent his money for temporary relief.
Pain, swollen, inflamed, and all of which have been only a relief, some not even that. He called at the Law Building Pharmacy, where seemingly miraculous cures of catarrh, rheumatism, kidney, liver, stomach and bladder troubles, indigestion, constipation, procured one bottle of Quaker Herb Extract, one Oil of Balm, and after eight days' use reports he is just getting along fine; don't have any more pain in the back; his bowels have to get up at night; his bowels are acting fine; appetite good, sleep refreshing—in fact, feels 100 per cent better every way.

Another remarkable report is Mr.
W. P. Lassiter, who keeps a grocery store at Fayette Avenue, South Norfolk. He had catarrh of the head, throat and nose, a nasty slime coming from the throat, and throat causing hawking, spitting all the time, stomach would bloat, belching, lump of lead feeling in pit of stomach, palpitation of heart, shortness of breath, dizziness, headache, no appetite, losing flesh for the past three years; has taken enough medicine to fill a barrel, but nothing ever gave much relief.

He started using Quaker Herb Extract, and in four days reports a wonderful improvement—in fact, he has got relieved of all that debilitated, despondent feeling, and says Quaker Herb Extract is the only medicine that has ever pouring in from people right here at home. Call to-day at Tracie's drug store, 817 East Broad Street, and obtain Quaker Herb Extract, $5.00 for six bottles, three for $2.50; single, $1.00. Oil of Balm, 50c.—Advertisement.
